THE WAR IN JAPAN: By the arrived of the Mancha from Shangbal, By the arrival of the Mancha from Shangbal, sainst we have further intelligence from Hiogo and feel of Ocaka relative to the disturbances there. It is not the disturbances there is the control of the disturbances there. wing appears that some difficulty has taken place Path with the foreigners on shore, resulting in the e ranwounding of a scaman altached to the U.S. S. conditions of a seminary action of the count of the affair in the Higgs and Osaka Herald on to is that on the 4th of February a body of about 150 Japanese entered the city of Nobe under the command of a Secretary to Prince Bizen. As they passed through the city at the cry stanters! (full down) the natives im-mediately fell upon their knees; but a foreigner named Collins, who was by, excited the crowd by not following the example of the natives, and was accordingly immediately set upon by them. but managed to escape. As the crowd them, but managed to escape. As the crowd passed on they next attacked a Japanese screater at in the employ of Sir Harry Parker, and a short distance further on two Prench sailors. At short distance further on two Prench sailors. one a thrust was made with a spear, but his companion saved him from a fatal wound by saizing cinnab the blade with his hand, and turning it on one is race t until sule. This seemed to have frightened the sailors, who immediately set off at full speed, parsued by the Japanese firing at them, and indiscrimiantely at any foreigner who showed he bead. Two were wounded a scaman attrached to the Theole, and a permit attached to the Leploce. In the North China Herald we read :-The Tycom's officers have left Hiogo, where party of the Bixen defended retainers made an indiscriminate attack on foreigners on the 4th instant, which was promptly punished. The uttack was sallen and apparently upprovokel; but the firing of the Japanese was fortunately. o bal that only two casa tities have occurred. neither of which are likely to result fatally. The detachments of H. M. 91b Regiment were The detachments of H. M. M. Regulett were at once called ont, and paramed the Japanese, who showed light for about five minutes, but then broke and fiel. The mounted escort, with Sir Harry Parkes at their head, captured three enall field pieces. The unit body of Bizen's men, hearing of the affair, did not attempt by pass through Hinga.
